SECTION B: Event report and reflection

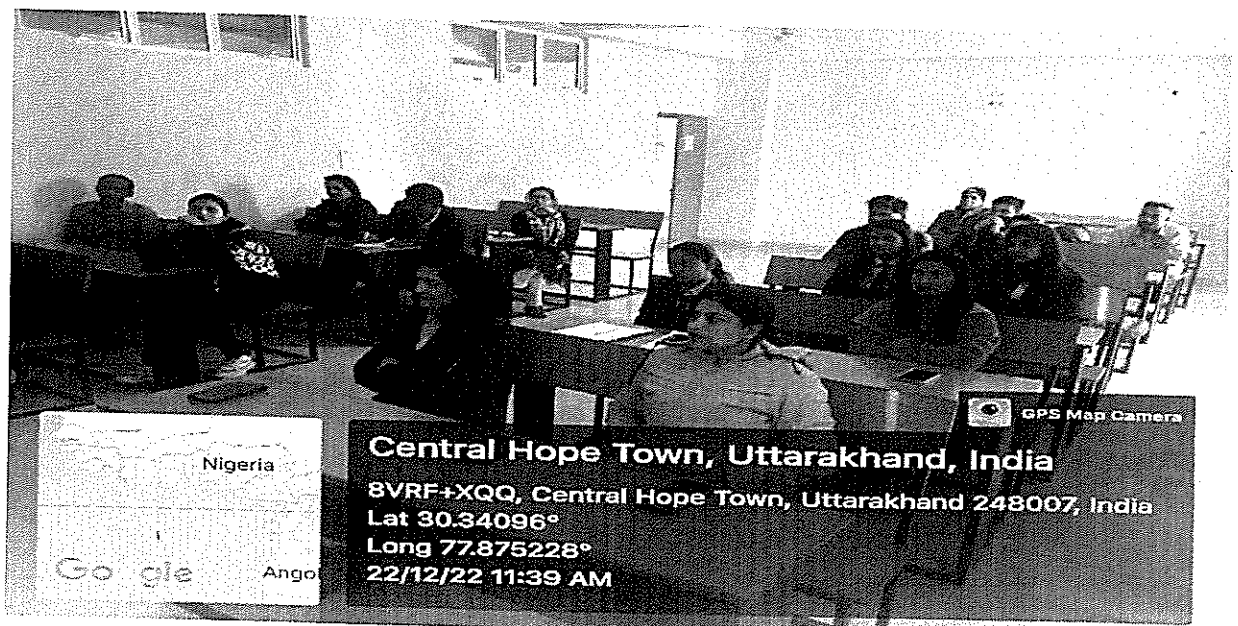

1. Event objectives:

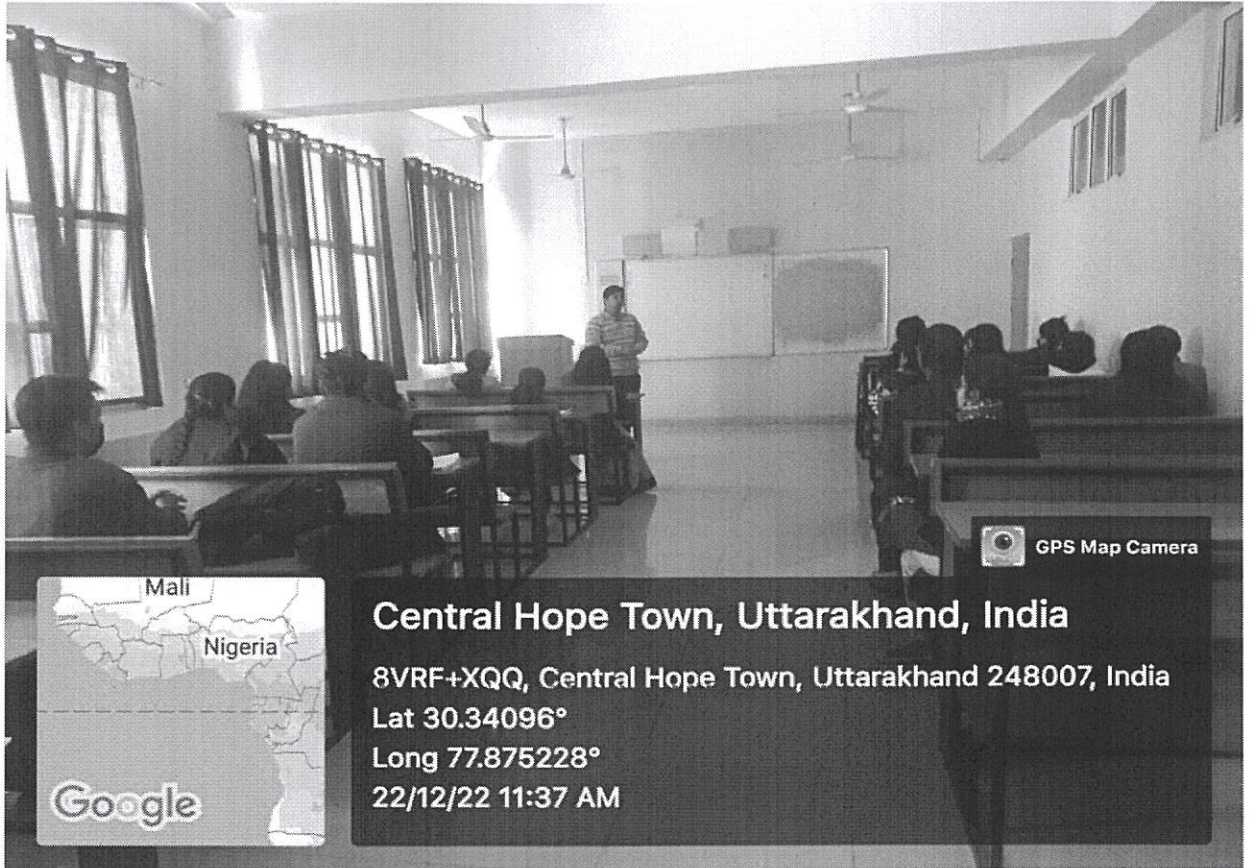

Apart from obtaining a job and further progress, it's crucial for a teacher to have good communication skills as he has to deal with the students of various age groups with lots of individual differences. Along with having deep knowledge of the subject a teacher, he must know how to impart the knowledge to his students. What role communication skills play in having more job options, and how these are beneficial in progress, was the objective of the lecture.

2. Event description:

This is nature of teaching profession that for a teacher it is mandatory to have good communication skills because apart from having deep knowledge of the subject, he must know how to impart the knowledge to his students. Considering the same a lecture was organized by the School of Education & Humanities on 'Communication Skills & Job Opportunities' on dated 21st December 2022 for the pupil-teachers under Career Counselling Cell of the University.

Dr. Ritesh Chaudhary, Dean, School of Journalism & Mass Communication delivered a valuable lecture on the same. Through different illustrations and anecdotes he introduced pupil-teachers with importance of communication in life and benefits of having better communication skills in life with special reference to job opportunities.
